

Wednesday, February 24, 2010

Coffee & Conversation Legal Series Presents:

Interpreting Protective Orders

Kim Parra & Ami Garry, Victim Advocates
Dove Advocacy Services for Abused Deaf Women and Children

4:00-7:00 PM

Whole Foods, 1111 S. Washington St. Denver

>>(I-25 & Washington/Emerson St. Exit, Community Room)<<

Take a coffee break & enjoy a conversation with Kim Parra & Ami Garry, Dove Advocacy Services for Abused Deaf Women & Children, as we go through the Protective Orders paper work. What's the difference between a No Contact Order and a Restraining Order?? Let's talk about interpretation ideas for the extensive Protective Orders paperwork, look at different county's paperwork, the role of the interpreter with the victim advocate...what else?

YOU bring the questions, WE provide the coffee

(regular or decaf drip provided, or feel free to purchase a drink; you are welcome to bring your own snack)

This Workshop will be presented in ASL

REGISTRATION COST: $25.00

Make checks payable to CRID/LIC and send to:

Amber Poor, CRID Treasurer
16363 E. Fremont Ave., #321
Aurora, CO 80016

Refund can be made upon request up to one week prior to the workshop date
Registration at the door only upon prior approval, contact Lorrie or Cheri

SPACE IS LIMITED—REGISTER EARLY!

Open to interpreters completing at least 50 hours of legal skills training, and Dove victim advocates

SPONSORS:

Dove Advocacy Services for Abused Deaf Women & Children
Colorado Commission for the Deaf & Hard of Hearing/Legal Auxiliary Services
CRID Legal Interpreting Committee
Human Rights & Community Relations/City & County of Denver

Big Thanks to Whole Foods, I-25 & Washington St. Store for the use of their space

For More Information/ ADA Accommodation:

Lorrie.Kosinski@denvergov.org, City of Denver/CRID LIC
Cheri.Davis@state.co.us, CCDHH/Legal Auxiliary Services

.3 RID CEUs

UNC-DO IT Center is an Approved RID CMP Sponsor for Continuing Education Activities
This program is offered for .3 CEUs, Professional Studies category at the "some" content level

